Contrasts and Opportunities in the Investment Year 2024

The investment year 2024 was characterized by contrasts: On one hand, geopolitical tensions and persistent inflation concerns led to market uncertainties. Central banks navigated cautiously between interest rate cuts and the need to maintain price stability, keeping markets in a state of heightened vigilance. Despite global economic challenges, economic growth was higher than expected, which had a positive impact particularly on sectors benefiting from artificial intelligence. Megatrend themes such as knowledge society and consumption significantly influenced investment strategies. In December, there was a temporary consolidation in international stock markets, mainly due to the planned interest rate cuts for 2025 falling short of expectations. Nevertheless, the Globalance Zukunftbeweger Focused Fund ended the year with a pleasing, positive result.

The footprint of this portfolio is positive

The Globalance Footprint® shows what our investors assets around the world are doing - individually and at a glance. Our grid is simple and objective. We assess the contribution to economic prosperity, the sustainability of society and the preservation of our natural resources on the basis of nine themes.

Explanation: 0 % of invested capital has an adverse footprint, 18 % of invested capital has a balanced footprint and 82 % of invested capital has a positive footprint. Each of the nine dimensions is evaluated on a scale of 0 - 100 and assigned a weight. The Footprint total value is calculated by adding the weighted scores of the individual dimensions.

The effect of the portfolio

Increasing weather extremes, the melting of the polar ice caps and other consequences can be directly linked to global warming. The climate crisis has an impact on wealth and vice versa. The principles of sustainability are the foundations for a livable society and a healthy environment. Integrating sustainability into a portfolio increases the resilience and potential of assets.

The warming potential in a global context

To put the warming potential in perspective, we show the possible global emissions pathways to 2100 (chart). These were created by Climate Action Tracker and show different scenarios ranging from current political projections to short-term country pledges (until 2030) and long-term country pledges (until 2050).

Globalance Footprint

The Globalance Footprint shows what assets do in the world - in the areas of economy, society and environment. Whether shares, real estate or tangible assets: We make a systematic assessment of the impact of all investments. Our grid is simple and objective. A total of nine criteria represent sustainable foundations for prosperity, the future viability of society and the preservation of our natural life-support systems. The Footprint is positive if the value is greater than 54.
