Uncertainties Weigh on the Markets in October

At the beginning of the month, conflicts in the Middle East led to uncertainties in global financial markets. In the U.S. inflation figures came in slightly higher than expected, raising questions about the potential for significant interest rate cuts. However, the markets reacted largely calmly to this development. Positive momentum from the ongoing U.S. earnings season supported the stock markets, leading some indices to reach new highs, despite the overall challenging environment. The Globalance Zukunftbeweger Focused Fund managed to outperform the broad market in the reporting month. This was mainly due to the exceptionally strong performance in the megatrends knowledge society and consumption. The largest contributions to the portfolio once again came from Ap- plovin (a provider of analytics tools and marketing services for advertising efficiency) and Sprouts Farmers Market (a U.S. grocery chain for natural and organic products), both of which delivered double-digit returns.

Footprint

The impact of Globalance Zukunftsbeweger Focused Fund on the economy, society and the environment

View the fund's footprint here

The footprint of this portfolio is positive

The Globalance Footprint® shows what our investors assets around the world are doing - individually and at a glance. Our grid is simple and objective. We assess the contribution to economic prosperity, the sustainability of society and the preservation of our natural resources on the basis of nine themes.

Explanation: 1 % of invested capital has an adverse footprint, 29 % of invested capital has a balanced footprint and 70 % of invested capital has a positive footprint. Each of the nine dimensions is evaluated on a scale of 0 - 100 and assigned a weight. The Footprint total value is calculated by adding the weighted scores of the individual dimensions.

The effect of the portfolio

Increasing weather extremes, the melting of the polar ice caps and other consequences can be directly linked to global warming. The climate crisis has an impact on wealth and vice versa. The principles of sustainability are the foundations for a livable society and a healthy environment. Integrating sustainability into a portfolio increases the resilience and potential of assets.

The warming potential in a global context

To put the warming potential in perspective, we show the possible global emissions pathways to 2100 (chart). These were created by Climate Action Tracker and show different scenarios ranging from current political projections to short-term country pledges (until 2030) and long-term country pledges (until 2050).

Globalance Footprint

The Globalance Footprint shows what assets do in the world - in the areas of economy, society and environment. Whether shares, real estate or tangible assets: We make a systematic assessment of the impact of all investments. Our grid is simple and objective. A total of nine criteria represent sustainable foundations for prosperity, the future viability of society and the preservation of our natural life-support systems. The Footprint is positive if the value is greater than 54.
